

ENDODONTIC SUMMIT 2006

FINAL PROGRAMME

| Time    | Saturday 4 Nov                                                                                               | Time    | Sunday 5 Nov                                                                                                            |
|---------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 08:00am | Registration & Breakfast                                                                                     | 08:00am | Registration & Breakfast                                                                                                |
| 08:45am | Opening Remarks                                                                                              |         |                                                                                                                         |
| 09:00am | Prof Roger RebeizI can't reach the Apex – What should I do?                                       | 09:00am | A/P Gary CheungPredicting the fatigue life of NiTi Instruments in use                                        |
| 09:45am | Drs Bernard Iskandar &amp; Yanti SiswadiRoot Canal Shapes – Considerations for Cleaning & Shaping | 09:45am | Dr Tan Boon TikDiagnosis & Management of Cracks & Fractures                                                  |
| 10:30am | Break                                                                                                        | 10:30am | Break                                                                                                                   |
| 11:00am | Prof Fan BinAnatomy of the C-shaped Canal System                                                  | 11:00am | Prof Harold MesserIs there a future for endodontics?                                                         |
| 11:45am | Dr Yoshitsugu TerauchiMicro-endodontics & Micro Computer Tomography                               |         |                                                                                                                         |
| 12:30pm | MES Annual General MeetingLunch                                                                          | 12:30pm |                                                                                                                         |
| 02:15pm | Dr Ben JohnsonDebridement – the first step in healing                                             | 02:00pm | A/P Anil KishenAdvanced non-invasive light activated therapy: a new approach for disinfection of root canals |
| 03:15pm | Ticketed Event: Table Clinic 1                                                                        | 02:45pm | Dr Anish NawareUltrasonics in Endodontics                                                                    |
| 04:30pm | Ticketed Event: Table Clinic 2                                                                        | 03:30pm | Dr Jeeraphat JantararatAll you need to know about root canal perforations                                    |
| 05:30pm | End of Day 1                                                                                                 | 04:30pm | Summit Roundup                                                                                                   |
| 07:00pm | Ticketed Event: Friendship Dinner                                                                     |         | Selamat Jalan!See you in Singapore 2008 !                                                                           |

Venue

Lecture : The Prince Hotel Ballroom

Table Clinics : To be confirmed but will be in the vicinity of the Ballroom.

Friendship Dinner : The Prince Hotel Ballroom

Malaysia CPE: 6 points